

We are seeking a Teacher of Religious Studies to join our Humanities Department from 1 September 2025. This is a great opportunity for a passionate educator to deliver excellence in the classroom and inspire students through innovative lessons. This post would be an ideal opportunity for an early career teacher (ECT) to develop their practice, within a supportive and evolving team.

Contract type: Permanent Full Time Teaching

Start Date: September 2025

Would you like to work in a school that invests in developing and growing its staff? Are you a Religious Studies teacher who wants to make a difference and help students achieve their potential? If so, an exciting opportunity has arisen at King Edward VI King's Norton School for Boys. We are seeking to appoint an enthusiastic, highly motivated, organised, and confident Teacher of Religious Studies to join our team. We are looking for someone who loves their subject and can communicate and share that passion with their students, colleagues, and the wider community. The successful candidate must have a strong desire to continuously develop and improve their teaching practice and have the highest expectations for our boys. Our academic results are impressive and are consistently above the National Average and well above the National average for boys. We are pleased with progress our boys make.

The ideal candidate will have up-to-date knowledge and understanding of current developments in the teaching and learning of Religious Studies to all students. They will have strong communication skills along with the enthusiasm needed to inspire the students they teach and their colleagues in the department. They will be open, honest and reflective with a thirst to improve and develop their practice and pedagogy.

At King Edward VI King's Norton School for Boys, we are proud of our journey, and, with over 100 years of history, our school has many great traditions that live on in our ethos today. We maintain the best of these traditions and enhance them with the latest educational practice; this provides us with a blend of traditional values with a forward-looking approach to learning.

We are part of the King Edward VI Multi Academy Trust, which is a diverse family of schools serving Birmingham. The trust supports the school in our shared aim and values; to make Birmingham the best place to be educated. To achieve this, it is essential that we add value, academically, personally and culturally to our student's journey. We are proud of our curriculum, teaching, learning and the results they enable our students to achieve. We are proud of our students and the way they develop as individuals through their interactions and experiences. We are proud of the range of opportunities that we offer which take our students out of their comfort zone and help them to build character, self-worth and resilience.

Aspiration is essential to all of this; it is the key to continually striving for improvement. Our motto is: "Humani Semper Contendimus". – 'we humans are always striving'. It drives us in providing the highest quality, well-rounded education for the boys we serve.

Applicants should complete the school's application form and submit with a supporting letter maximum of two sides of A4 and return to recruitment@knbs.co.uk. Please do not delay in sending in your application as applications will be considered as they arrive. We do not intend to consider any application that arrives after 4pm on Monday 10th February 2025, final shortlisting of applications will take place at this time and Interviews will be carried out Thursday 26th February 2025.

If you'd like a tour of the school or an informal conversation with a member of our team, please contact us on 0121 628 0010 or email recruitment@knbs.co.uk and we will happily oblige.

King Edward VI King's Norton school for boys is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and expect all staff to share this commitment. The successful candidate will be subject to all necessary pre-employment checks, including enhanced DBS; Childcare Disqualification (where applicable); qualifications (where applicable); medical fitness; identity and right to work. All applicants will be required to provide two suitable references. For short-listed candidates an online search will also be carried out as part of due diligence on all short-listed candidates.

This post is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and the amendments to the Exceptions Order 1975, 2013 and 2020. Which means that when applying for certain jobs and activities certain spent convictions and cautions are 'protected', so they do not need to be disclosed to employers, and if they are disclosed, employers cannot take them into account.
